Detweiler Road to Close Permanently in Warrington Township, Bucks County for Route 202 Parkway Construction

PennDOT to Build Cul-De-Sacs on Both Sides of Parkway

King of Prussia –The permanent closure of Detweiler Road between Upper State Road and Stump Road in Warrington Township, Bucks County, will take effect Thursday, Jan. 28 for the construction of the new Route 202 Parkway, the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation today announced.

Detweiler Road, a township road, will no longer serve through traffic between Upper State Road and Stump Road as cul-de-sacs will be constructed on both sides of the new Parkway. Warrington Township requested this traffic pattern change as part of the design of the Parkway.

This operation is part of the $25 million contract to build the central section of the Route 202 Parkway between Route 463 and Pickertown Road in Montgomery Township, Montgomery County, and Warrington Township. Blooming Glen Contractors, Inc. of Blooming Glen, Bucks County, is the general contractor.
